Joke

A Catholic Priest, a Baptist Preacher and a Rabbi served as Chaplin to the students of Northern Michigan University. They would get together two or three times a week for coffee and to talk shop. One day, someone made the comment that preaching to the people isn't really all that hard, a real challenge would be to preach to a bear.

One thing led to another, and they decided to do an experiment. They would all go out into the woods, find a bear and preach to it, and attempt to covert it to their religion.

Seven days later, they all came together to discuss their experiences. Father Flannery, who had his arm in a sling, was on crutches, and had various bandages on his body and limbs, went first.

“Well, he said, I went into the woods to find me a bear. When I found him I began to read to him from the Catechism. Well, that bear wanted nothing to do with me and began to slap me around. So I quickly grabbed my holy water, sprinkled him and, Holy Mother of God, he became as gentle as a lamb. The Bishop is coming out next week to give him first communion and confirmation”.

Reverend Billy Bob the Baptist spoke next. He was in a wheelchair had one arm and both legs in casts, and had an IV drip. In his best fire-brimstone oratory, he exclaimed, “Well brothers, you know that we Baptists don't sprinkle! I went out and I found me a bear. Then I began to read to my bear from Gods Holy Word! That bear wanted nothing to do with me. So I took hold of him and we wrestled up and down one hill then another till we came into a creek. So I quickly dunked him and baptized his hairy soul. Just like you said he became gentle as a lamb. Hallelujah!

The Priest and Reverend looked down at the Rabbi who was lying in a body cast and traction with IVs and monitors running in and out of him. The Rabbi looked up and said: “Looking back on it, circumcision may not have been the best way to start!

I got myself an Older Persons GPS-not only does it tell me how to get to my destination; it also tells me why I wanted to get there.
